Annual Ethics Education

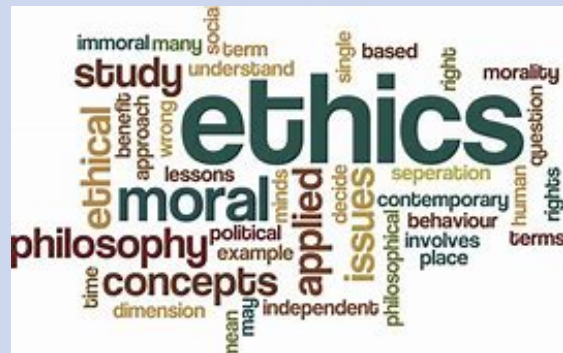

Start watching your emails!

Starting the first week of January you will receive an email with the link to Mass.gov to take your annual Ethics, along with attachments for Sexual Harassment and Conflict of Interest forms to be signed.

Please view the attached:

Ethics Rules and Regulations

As a reminder, once you have signed off on your forms, there is a second email you will receive stating you have completed your form, You will need to open this email and finish the process, otherwise HR will not be notified or receive your completed forms. *You will also need to print out your online Ethics form and

Do you think education when you think EAP?

We know that our EAP is there to help an employee when they need assistance, but did you know they offer online training to help you with daily life or situations that may be of interest to you or your family?

When you set up your personal e4health account you have access to all sorts of benefits.

In the month of January e4health is offering a webinar on paying off your student loans. In this webinar, employees can learn how to manage their payments and learn consolidation options open to them, along with information for parents who are looking to prepare for the future. Please use the link below to access time and date for this and other webinars.
