Community Service Officers 2022 Summer Season

The Nantucket Police Department is currently accepting applications from suitable persons for the position of Community Service Officer for the 2022 summer season. CSOs are not armed and perform a variety of duties and services in support of basic police operations and functions which do not require the legal powers of a sworn police officer.

This experience can prove to be invaluable to any individual who desires to enter the field of law, law enforcement or any of the social sciences. CSOs are generally assigned to ATV, bicycle and foot patrol and are scheduled to work day and night shifts.

CSOs will be provided uniforms to Department specifications, including duty belts and other duty equipment.

The starting hourly rate for CSO's is $24.00 per hour (Rate effective May 2, 2022). Housing for the summer is available for $95.00 per week.

The hiring process consists of a criminal background check, oral interview and a physical examination. The interviews are scheduled to occur April 2 & 3, 2022.

For successful applicants, there will be a training program scheduled to start on June 6, 2022 and then employment will continue through Labor Day. Under certain circumstances, such as exam conflicts, your starting date may be modified. If you are requesting a start date change, you must provide a written explanation of the conflict. Hiring preference may be given to those applicants who can start on June 6, 2022.

A copy of our employment application can be obtained from the Department web site at <http://www.nantucket-ma.gov/195/Police-Department>. You can either print or complete the application on your computer. It is suggested that you use Adobe Acrobat Reader to complete the application.

The deadline for completed applications to be mailed with ORIGINAL signatures is March 4, 2022, FAX copies will not be accepted.
