

Important decisions about your new Medicare coverage

Welcome to Medicare! You now have Medicare Part A and/or Part B. Your enclosed Medicare card shows when your coverage starts.

- Medicare Part A (Hospital Insurance)—helps cover hospital care, skilled nursing care, and more. Most people don't need to pay a premium for Part A.
- Medicare Part B (Medical Insurance)—helps cover doctors' services, outpatient care, and more. Part B is optional, and you pay a monthly premium for it.

Make these 2 important decisions now:

Decision 1: Should I sign up for Part B?

- If you're already signed up for Part B—you don't need to do anything. Medicare will automatically deduct the premium from your monthly Social Security or civil service benefit payments. If your benefits aren't enough to cover your premium or you don't get benefits, you'll get a bill for your Part B premium every 3 months.
- If you want Part B—contact Social Security to find out when you can sign up.
- If you don't want Part B now—you can sign up later. However, you may have to wait for your coverage to start and pay a monthly penalty.

❗ Read pages 3–8 in the booklet to see if you should sign up for Part B (based on your situation).

Decision 2: If I signed up for Part B, which way should I choose to get Medicare health coverage?

- Original Medicare—includes Part A and Part B. You can buy supplemental coverage from a private company to help pay your out-of-pocket costs. You can also get Medicare drug coverage (Part D).
- Medicare Advantage—a Medicare-approved plan from a private company that bundles your Part A, Part B, and usually drug coverage (Part D) into one plan. Most plans include extra benefits, like vision, hearing, dental, and more.

❗ Read pages 8–14 in the booklet for additional and important information to make your decision. Turn this page over for your options at-a-glance.

Soon we'll mail your official "Medicare & You" handbook with more information. You can also visit Medicare.gov anytime for details about getting started with Medicare.

Your Medicare options

There are 2 main ways to get your Medicare coverage:

Original Medicare

- Original Medicare includes Medicare Part A (Hospital Insurance) and Part B (Medical Insurance).
- If you want drug coverage, you can join a separate Medicare drug plan (Part D).
- To help pay your out-of-pocket costs in Original Medicare (like your 20% coinsurance), you can also shop for and buy supplemental coverage.
- Can use any doctor or hospital that takes Medicare, anywhere in the U.S.

Part A

Part B

You can add:

Part D

You can also add:

Supplemental coverage

This includes a Medicare Supplement Insurance (Medigap) policy. Or, you can use coverage from a former employer or union, or Medicaid.

Medicare Advantage

(also known as Part C)

- Medicare Advantage is an “all in one” alternative to Original Medicare. These “bundled” plans include Part A, Part B, and usually Part D.
- Plans may have lower out-of-pocket costs than Original Medicare.
- In most cases, you’ll need to use doctors who are in the plan’s network.
- Most plans offer extra benefits that Original Medicare doesn’t cover—like vision, hearing, dental, and more.

Important decisions about your Medicare coverage

Now's the time to make some important decisions about your Medicare coverage.

Read this booklet carefully before you make any decisions.

Medicare Overview

Medicare Part A (Hospital Insurance) helps cover inpatient care in hospitals, skilled nursing facility care, hospice care, and home health care.

Medicare Part B (Medical Insurance) helps cover services from doctors and other health care providers, outpatient care, durable medical equipment (like wheelchairs, walkers, hospital beds, and other equipment), and many preventive services (like screenings, shots or vaccines, and yearly “Wellness” visits).

Visit Medicare.gov/coverage, or use our “What’s covered” mobile app to find out if your test, item, or service is covered. It’s available for free on both the App Store and Google Play. You can also call 1-800-MEDICARE (1-800-633-4227). TTY users can call 1-877-486-2048.

Note: If you’re not lawfully present in the U.S., Medicare won’t pay for your Part A and Part B claims, and you can’t enroll in a Medicare Advantage Plan or a Medicare drug plan (Part D).

What does Part B cost?

You'll pay a monthly premium for Part B. In 2021, the standard Part B premium is $148.50. You'll pay more if you have a higher income. The premium amount can change each year. (See page 9 for more on costs.)

If you have limited income and resources, you may be able to get help from your state to pay your Part B premium if you meet certain conditions. (See page 14.)

Decision 1: Should I sign up for Part B if I haven't already?

If you signed up for Part B, skip to Decision 2 on page 8. If you don't sign up for Part B and you don't have other coverage based on active or current employment, there are some risks:

- You most likely will have to pay all of the costs for doctors' services, outpatient care, medical supplies, and preventive services.
- If you change your mind and want to get Part B later, you'll have to wait until the General Enrollment Period (January 1–March 31 each year) to sign up, and your coverage won't start until July 1 of that year. This may cause a gap in your health coverage.
- In most cases, if you decide you want Part B later, you'll also have to pay a late enrollment penalty for as long as you have Part B coverage. The penalty amount is added to your monthly Part B premium, and it goes up the longer you go without Part B coverage. (See page 8 for the cost of the penalty.)

Whether it's best for you to sign up for Part B depends on your situation. The next few pages cover common situations and explain the risks for not signing up for Part B.

Common Situations

I'm still working and have coverage through my employer. Or, my spouse (or my family member, if I'm disabled) is still working and I'm covered through his or her employer:

- You may need to sign up for Part B right away if your employer has less than 20 employees. Check with your benefits administrator to see if they require you to enroll in Part B. If your employer has 20 or more employees, you may be able to sign up for Part B later during a Special Enrollment Period without a late enrollment penalty if:
 - You're 65 or older, you or your spouse is currently working, and you're covered by an employer or union group health plan based on that current employment.
 - You're under 65 and disabled, you or a family member is currently working, and you're covered by an employer or union group health plan based on that current employment.

(If the group health plan coverage is based on the current employment of a family member, the employer must have 100 or more employees.)

If you're eligible for this Special Enrollment Period, you can sign up for Part B:

- Anytime while you're covered by the employer or union group health plan based on current employment.
- For up to 8 months after the group health plan coverage or the employment ends, whichever happens first.

I'm retired and have coverage through a former employer, or I have COBRA or VA coverage:

- You may need both Part A and Part B to get full benefits from this coverage, and your current coverage might not pay your medical costs once you're eligible for Medicare.
- You're also not eligible for this Special Enrollment Period when this coverage ends. This means:
 - You'll have to wait until the General Enrollment Period (January 1–March 31 each year) to sign up for Part B, and your coverage would start July 1 of that year.
 - In most cases, you'll pay a late enrollment penalty added to your monthly premium for as long as you have Part B coverage.

I have coverage through the Health Insurance Marketplace for individuals or families:

You should consider signing up for Part B and stopping your Marketplace plan when your Medicare starts. Generally:

- You won't qualify for help from the Marketplace to pay your Marketplace premiums or other medical costs. If you continue to get help to pay your Marketplace premiums after your Medicare Part A eligibility starts, you may have to pay back all or part of the help you got when you file your federal income taxes.
- Your plan may not renew your Marketplace coverage at the end of the year. This means you and your family could have a gap in your coverage starting January 1 of the next year.
- You may not be eligible for a Medicare Special Enrollment Period. This means you'll have to wait for a General Enrollment Period (January 1 -March 31 each year) to sign up, and you may have to pay a late enrollment penalty as long as you have Part B coverage.

I have employer coverage through the Marketplace (sometimes called Small Business Health Options Program or “SHOP” coverage):

You may be able to wait until you stop working or no longer have SHOP coverage to enroll in Part B under a Special Enrollment Period without a penalty. (See page 4.) Visit HealthCare.gov and Medicare.gov to learn more.

I have coverage through a private insurance plan, (not through the Health Insurance Marketplace or an employer):

- If you get Part B, Medicare will pay its part of the costs for any health care services you get, and then any amount Medicare doesn't cover can be submitted to your private plan.
- If you choose to enroll in Part B later, you won't be eligible for a Special Enrollment Period, so you'll have to wait to sign up. Also, you may have to pay a late enrollment penalty for as long as you have Part B coverage. (See page 8.)

I have TRICARE coverage (insurance for active-duty military, military retirees, and their families) or CHAMPVA coverage:

You must have Part B to keep your coverage. However, if you're an active-duty service member or the spouse or dependent child of an active-duty service member, you don't have to get Part B right away.

I have Medicaid:

You should sign up for Part B. Medicare will pay first, and Medicaid will pay second. Your state may also help pay for your Medicare premiums. (See page 14.)

I don't have other medical insurance:

You should sign up for Part B, so you have coverage for things like doctors' services or preventive services. Be aware of the risks for not signing up for Part B. (See page 3.)

How much is the penalty if I enroll later?

If you sign up for Part B later and you aren't eligible for a Special Enrollment Period, you'll pay 10% more for each full 12-month period you could've had Part B but didn't take it. In most cases, you'll have to pay this late enrollment penalty each time you pay your premiums, for as long as you have Part B. The penalty increases the longer you go without Part B coverage.

Decision 2: Choose which way to get Medicare health coverage?

If you signed up for Part B, you have 2 main ways to get your Medicare coverage:

Original Medicare

or

Medicare Advantage

Original Medicare

Original Medicare includes Part A and Part B. When you get services, you'll pay a deductible, and you usually pay 20% of the cost of the Medicare-approved service, called coinsurance.

The deductible for Part B is $203 in 2021.

With Original Medicare, you:

- Can go to any doctor or hospital that takes Medicare, anywhere in the U.S.
- You don't need a referral to see a specialist, in most cases.
- Generally pay a portion of the cost for each covered service. There's no yearly limit on what you pay out-of-pocket, unless you have supplemental coverage (like a Medigap policy).
- Can join a Medicare Drug Plan (Part D) to get drug coverage. (See page 11.)
- Can get supplemental coverage (like a Medigap policy) to help pay your remaining out-of-pocket costs (like your 20% coinsurance). (See page 13.)

When you sign up for Part B, you'll have Original Medicare unless you enroll in a Medicare Advantage Plan.

Medicare Advantage (also known as Part C)

Medicare Advantage is an “all-in-one” alternative to Original Medicare. These “bundled” plans include Part A, Part B, and usually Part D (drug coverage). These plans are approved and follow the rules set by Medicare. The costs in plans vary and plans may have lower out-of-pocket costs than Original Medicare. You must have both Medicare Part A and Part B to join.

You can join a Medicare Advantage Plan when you first become eligible for Medicare. For most, this period starts 3 months before you turn 65 and ends 3 months after the month you turn 65. (See page 12 for other times you can join.)

With Medicare Advantage, you:

- Can get extra benefits that Original Medicare doesn't cover—like vision, hearing, dental, and more.
- Need to use providers who are in the plan's network (for non-emergency or non-urgent care).
- May pay a premium for the plan in addition to the monthly Part B premium. Plans may have a $0 premium or may help pay all or part of your Part B premiums.
- Don't need and can't buy a Medigap policy.

Do I need Medicare prescription drug coverage (Part D)?

If you don't have prescription drug coverage, or the coverage you have isn't at least as good as Medicare drug coverage (called creditable coverage), you should consider enrolling in a Part D plan. Your plan must tell you each year if your drug coverage is creditable coverage.

If you need prescription drug coverage, you have to sign up for it. You can get drug coverage by joining a Medicare drug plan or a Medicare Advantage Plan that includes drug coverage.

You have up to 3 months after your Medicare coverage first starts to join a Part D plan.

If you don't get Medicare drug coverage when you're first eligible for Medicare, and you don't have creditable prescription drug coverage or Extra Help, you may have to pay a late enrollment penalty, if you join later. Generally, you'll pay this penalty for as long as you have Medicare prescription drug coverage. And, the penalty goes up the longer you wait to enroll.

Choosing and joining a plan

You can compare ways to get your Medicare coverage and explore how different plans work together. You can also shop and compare plans to find ones that meet your needs. Visit Medicare.gov/plan-compare, call 1-800-MEDICARE, or contact the plan directly.

If you didn't join a Medicare Advantage Plan or a Medicare drug plan when you were first eligible, you'll have at least one chance each year to make changes to your Medicare coverage:

October 15-December 7: You can join, switch, or leave a Medicare Advantage Plan or a Medicare drug plan during this period each year. Your new coverage will begin on January 1 of the following year.

January 1-March 31: If you're in a Medicare Advantage Plan, you can make one change to a different Medicare Advantage Plan or switch base to Original Medicare (and join a stand-alone Medicare drug plan) once during this time.

Special Enrollment Periods: In certain situations, you may be able to join, switch, or drop Medicare Advantage or Medicare drug plans when certain events happen in your life.

Your enrollment generally lasts for a calendar year.

Do I need a Medicare Supplement Insurance (Medigap) policy?

Original Medicare pays for much, but not all, of the cost for covered health care services and supplies. If you choose Original Medicare, you may be able to buy a Medicare Supplement Insurance (Medigap) policy from a private company to help pay your out-of-pocket costs in Original Medicare (like your 20% coinsurance). You need both Part A and Part B to buy a Medigap policy.

Medigap policies:

- Can cover costs like coinsurance, copayments, and deductibles.
- May offer coverage for services that Original Medicare doesn't cover, like medical care when you travel outside the U.S.
- Generally don't cover long-term care (like care in a nursing home), vision, dental, hearing aids, private-duty nursing, or prescription drugs.

When can I get a Medigap policy?

The best time to buy a Medigap policy is during your Medigap Open Enrollment Period. This 6-month period begins on the first day of the month in which you're 65 or older and enrolled in Part B. (Some states have additional Open Enrollment Periods.) After this enrollment period, you may not be able to buy a Medigap policy. If you're able to buy one, it may cost more.

Tip: If you buy a Medigap policy during this time, you can buy any Medigap policy sold in your state, even if you have health problems

If you're under 65, you might not be able to buy the Medigap policy you want, or any Medigap policy, until you turn 65. If you're able to buy one when you're under 65, it may cost more.

Visit Medicare.gov to learn more and compare Medigap policies in your area, or call 1-800-MEDICARE.

Help for People with Limited Income and Resources

You may be able to get help paying for some of your health care and prescription drug costs.

- Medicaid and Medicare Savings Programs—States have programs that pay Medicare costs for people with limited income and resources. Visit Medicare.gov to learn more. You can also call 1-800-MEDICARE (1-800-633-4227) to get the number for your state Medicaid office. TTY users can call 1-877-486-2048.

- Extra Help with Part D prescription drug costs—If you have limited income and resources, you may qualify to get help paying your drug costs. To apply for this program, visit socialsecurity.gov/i1020, or call Social Security at 1-800-772-1213. TTY users can call 1-800-325-0778.
- Supplemental Security Income (SSI)—SSI is a monthly benefit paid by Social Security to people with limited income and resources who are disabled, blind, or 65 or older. For more information, contact Social Security.

Note: If you live in a U.S. Territory, there are different programs to help you pay your Medicare costs. Call your local Medical Assistance (Medicaid) office to learn more.
